COUNTY PRISON, OXFORD.—Builders

COUNTY PRISON, OXFORD.—Builders desirous of executing certain works in the Prison, consisting of the ERECTION OF A NEW WING OF THREE ROOMS, for Male Prisoners, on the separate system, are invited to tender (after the usual manner) and to take copies of the plans, to be delivered to the undersigned, at the County Hall, Oxford, and to deliver to the same on or before the 15th of July next, tenders of the amount which they would contract to execute the work. The terms of the contract, and the nature of the work, may be ascertained by being accompanied by the names of two responsible persons, who would join the contractor in the usual bond for the performance of his contract; but it shall not be deemed obligatory upon the contractor to execute the work, unless the tender be accompanied by the contract and bond, which will be prepared by the Clerk of the Prison, and a copy delivered to the contractor free of charge; and copies of these documents in the form in which the contractor and surety are required to sign, may be obtained by the contractor and surety. Further particulars may be obtained by letter, either to Mr. C. BUCKLER, Auctioneer, Oxford; or to the CLERK OF THE PRISON, County Hall, Oxford, 14th June, 1868.
